

Continental Hospitals

Free Second Opinion – Patient Consent & Terms

1. Purpose of Service

The Free Second Opinion service offered by Continental Hospitals is intended to provide patients with an additional medical perspective based on the information and reports they submit. It does not replace emergency medical care or the advice of your primary physician.

2. Information Collected

By submitting the form, you provide us with:

- Personal details (name, age, gender, contact information)
- Medical history and uploaded health records (diagnostic scans, lab reports, prescriptions, etc.)

3. Use of Information

Your information will be reviewed by authorized doctors at Continental Hospitals solely for the purpose of offering a second opinion. We will not share your medical records with third parties without your explicit consent, except where required by law.

4. Data Security

All uploaded reports are stored securely and accessed only by authorized hospital staff. We employ encryption and secure storage methods to protect your data.

5. Limitations of Liability

The second opinion provided is advisory in nature and should not be treated as a final diagnosis or treatment prescription. Patients are encouraged to consult their treating physician before making medical decisions.

6. International Patients

If you are located outside India, you acknowledge that your personal and medical information will be stored and processed in India, subject to Indian data protection regulations.

7. Patient Responsibility

You confirm that:

- The information and medical reports you provide are accurate and belong to you.
- You authorize Continental Hospitals to review these records for the stated purpose.

8. Marketing Communication (Optional)

You may choose to receive health updates, newsletters, or promotional offers from Continental Hospitals. This will only occur if you opt in separately during form submission.

9. Acceptance

By submitting your information, you:

- Provide explicit consent for Continental Hospitals to use your data as described.
- Confirm you have read and understood these Terms & Conditions and the Privacy Policy.
